SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has the overall responsibility for good corporate governance, strategic direction and investments of the Company and the Group. It plays a primary role in the conduct and control of the Group's affairs. The Board recognises the key roles in setting the strategic direction and policy regarding the business and affairs of the Company and the Group for the benefit of shareholders and other stakeholders of the Company. In ensuring the effective discharge of its duties and responsibilities, the Board has established the following Board Committees which discharge their duties within their respective terms of references (TOR) as approved by the Board. The Board Committees make recommendations, if any, to the Board for approval in accordance with their respective TOR or if matters under consideration are beyond their authority limits set out in the Authority Chart: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Audit Committee2. Nomination Committee3. Remuneration Committee4. Executive Committee5. ESOS Committee The Board Committees are assisted by competent and dedicated management team in discharging their duties and responsibilities. The Executive Director and the Management deal with the day to day operations of the Group in accordance with the directives of the Board and the Board Committees, discharged their duties within the authority limits approved by the Board and will make recommendations to the Board Committees or the Board for approval if matters are beyond their authority limits spelled out in the Authority Chart. The Authority Chart was adopted since inception and has since went through a few revisions with the latest being carried out in 2018. The Chart set out the authority limits of the Executive Committee, the Executive Director and the Management and matters reserved for the Board's decision.

Together with its Board Committees and Senior Management, the Board is committed to promoting good corporate governance (CG) culture within the Group which reinforces ethical, prudent and professional behavior and is always mindful of the impact of its operations on the surrounding communities in its endeavors to strike a balance in its strategies on economic, environmental and social considerations underpinning sustainability.

The Board plays an active role in monitoring the development and implementation of the Company's strategies including the performance thereafter.

During the financial year, the Board reviewed and deliberated on the following with the Management on their views and assumptions made:

1. The Company strategies, budgets, plans and policies. Annually, the Board has a dedicated strategy session, whereby the Management presents to the Board its recommended strategies and proposed business plan and financial budget for the ensuing year;
2. Assessing performance against strategies to monitor both the performance of the Management as well as the continuing suitability of strategies;
3. Reviewing operational information to understand at all times the performance of the Company;
4. Ensuring that the Company operates an appropriate CG structure, in particular ensuring that the Company acts legally and responsibly on all matters and that the highest ethical standards are maintained;
5. The Group's risk management framework and policy and monitoring their effectiveness;
6. Considering the social, ethical and environmental impact of the Company's activities on the surrounding communities and monitoring compliance with the Company's standards to ensure sustainability of business;
7. Monitoring internal governance including delegated authorities and monitoring resources available to senior executives;
8. Ensuring the Company's corporate and financial disclosures are factual, timely and appropriate;
9. The prioritisation of the material matters identified for a balanced sustainability focus.

The Board challenged the Management on their views and assumptions made where deemed necessary to satisfy themselves that the matters before them are in the best interest of the Company, its shareholders and stakeholders before arriving at their decision.

The Board recognises the importance of risk management and internal controls as part of an integral part of the overall management process and had taken measures to establish the Risk Management Policy and Procedures which provides reasonable assessment of effective and efficient operations, internal financial control procedures and guidelines and compliance with laws and regulations as well as with internal policies and procedures to safeguard the interests of the shareholders and stakeholders.

The Board regularly reviewed the effectiveness of the internal control system through the Audit Committee with the assistance of its dedicated team of internal auditors which carried out ongoing risk assessments and auditing of the different areas of the business covering financial, operational and compliance throughout the year.

The Audit Committee with the assistance of the internal auditors also reviewed the effectiveness of internal control systems, risk management systems and compliance with laws and regulations. It also reviewed policies and procedures to continuously enhance the effectiveness of internal control systems.

The Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control furnished on pages 46_ to 47 of the Annual Report provides an overview of the state of risk management and internal control within the Group.

The Board is committed to provide a balanced, clear and meaningful assessment of the Group's financial positions and prospects in all its reports to the shareholders, investors and regulatory authorities. In its endeavour to prepare a financial statement which gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the Group, the Board was assisted by the Audit Committee which reviewed and scrutinised information for disclosure to ensure accuracy, adequacy and completeness.

The Chairman of the Audit Committee would update the Board at its Board Meetings, salient matters discussed at the Audit Committee Meetings and highlight matters of concerns to the Board for its attention or direction.

The Audit Committee with the assistance of the Management will ensure that the financial statements of the Company comply with all the regulatory bodies' requirements, accounting standards and policies before recommending the same to the Board for approval.

The Board with the assistance of the Nomination Committee is responsible to review the succession planning in the Company. The Nomination Committee is primarily responsible for the review on an annual basis the appropriate balance, size, the required mix of skills and experiences, qualities and effectiveness of the Board and makes recommendation on nomination or changes to the Board in ensuring the appropriate Board balance and size of executive and non-executive participation. It is also responsible for making recommendations to the Board on all new Board Committees' appointments.

Also assisting the Board is the Remuneration Committee which main responsibility is to review the framework of remuneration packages for the Executive Director, the Non-Executive Directors and the Key Senior Management and make appropriate recommendation to the Board for approval.

In determining the level of remuneration packages of the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and Key Senior Management, the Remuneration Committee recognises the importance of a competitive remuneration package. This must commensurate with and reflects the level of responsibilities,

	accountability, risks and experiences, in order to attract and retain experienced Executive Director and Key Senior Management who are qualified and of high calibre. The right credentials and astute insights will drive the business strategies, objectives, values and long-term interests of the Company. The Company has in place a Shareholders Communication & Investors Relation Policy to enable effective communication with stakeholders which includes general meetings, annual reports, website and public announcements and disclosures made to the relevant authorities. Information about the Group is also being disseminate via the Company's website. The shareholders, stakeholders, investors and the general public could communicate with the Company via the Group's website at www.litrak.com.my. The details of the Group's sustainability efforts are set out in its Sustainability Statement on pages 21 to 39 of the Annual Report 2020.

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises the Code's call for gender diversity with 30% women Directors on the Board of Directors and has in place a Diversity and Inclusion Policy which applies to all employees and Directors of the Group. The Policy promotes diversity and an inclusive culture in workplace with diverse workforce from different backgrounds and expertise that is premised on mutual trust and respect. The Company avoid practices and policies that discriminates one's gender, marital status, race, religion, nationality, ethnicity or age. The overall guiding principles are to promulgate basic human and labour rights and values to achieve organisational goals and maintain sustainable growth through a healthy, harmonious and professional workplace. The Board does not have a set target for women workforce as it is of the view that the capability, competency and performance of a candidate are the most important criteria in selecting a candidate. Nevertheless, beside the Flexi-Wellness Benefits and Flexi-Hours working arrangement, the Company has in place women-centric benefits such as childcare subsidies, childcare leave, 90 days maternity leave, pre-natal and post-natal support for the women employees. With these benefits, the Company hope to attract more women candidates into its workforce. The Board is pleased to disclose that to date, women represent 40% of the Board of Directors and 53% of the workforce. The Group's gender diversity is illustrated on page 36 of the Annual Report 2020.

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination Committee is responsible to ensure that the Directors of the Board comprise members which provide a required mix of responsibilities, skills and experience needed to direct the Company towards achieving its intended goals and objectives. When a vacancy exists or when it is considered that the Board would benefit from the services of a new Director with particular skills, the Nomination Committee will source and shortlist candidates with the appropriate expertise and experience and make recommendation to the Board for consideration and approval. In sourcing for suitable candidates, the Nomination Committee is open to referrals from internal and external sources. The Nomination Committee is satisfied with the current size of the Board and with the mix of qualifications, skills and experiences of its Board members. Part of the evaluation criteria is the commitment displayed, the depth of contribution, ability to communicate and undertake assignments on behalf of the Board. The Terms of Reference of the Nomination Committee is available on the Company's website at www.litrak.com.my.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	An annual evaluation by each Director of the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and its Board Committees was conducted for the financial year 2020. The evaluation process was led by the Nomination Committee and supported by the Company Secretaries. The Nomination Committee through the annual evaluation, reviewed and assessed the effectiveness of the Board as a whole including the independence of the independent directors, the composition, size and mix of skills, qualifications, qualities and experiences of the existing Board of Directors, the attendance of the Directors, the effectiveness of the Board Committees in fulfilling their functions and identify suitable trainings for Directors. The evaluation results are considered by the Nomination Committee, which then make recommendations to the Board. The Audit Committee was also required to conduct self-assessment which was designed to help its members to gain an insight into how well the Audit Committee has been meeting its objective and how well they had applied good practices recommended by the Code whilst the Independent Directors' self-assessment on the other hand was designed to help Independent Directors to identify whether they are independent under the guidelines of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements. The Board via the Nomination Committee has undertaken the following reviews and assessments for the financial year 2020: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Review the composition and size of the Board, the required mix of skills, knowledge, experiences and its effectiveness;2. Assess and make recommendation to the Board the re-election of Directors who retire at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting;3. Review the attendance of the Directors at Board Meetings;4. Oversee Annual Board Assessment, Board Committees Assessment, Audit Committee Self-Assessment and Independent Directors' Self-Assessment; and5. Identification of suitable trainings for the Directors. Based on the reviews and evaluations of the assessment conducted, the Board concluded amongst others that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The Board as a whole and its committees had been effective

	and performed well. The Board and its committees collectively had all the necessary skills, experiences and qualities to lead the company.
